MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Three years ago was my first year directing the Common Woman Chorus, after singing with the group since 2002. We sang a concert called One Voice in response to a tumultuous time with the NC legislature.

Our chorus was founded by women who needed to sing for social justice in 1983. It's no different over 30 years later. It's no surprise that the theme of my first concert as director, when we sang of unity, outrage, courage and hope, is similar to our theme today...we're still fighting. We're still singing for justice.

As long as I've been with this chorus, I've never felt more passionate about needing to show up, be awake to what's going on, and making our voices heard for the injustices that go on around us. And at the same time we see the beauty in our world and that it's worth fighting for.

I'm always honored to lead this chorus. They've brought me a long long way. And we'll continue to move forward together.

SUPPORT THE CHORUS!

Please take a moment before the concert and during intermission to visit the lobby and take part in our silent auction! As a non-profit organization, the Common Woman Chorus is completely supported by membership dues and your generous donations. We exist to make sure that women's voices are heard in these tumultuous times, through our concerts, special events, and outreach in the Durham community. Make sure that we continue to exist by participating in our auction and making a donation today!

This is the perfect opportunity to start your holiday shopping early or pick up something awesome for yourself. We have some fabulous and unique prizes donated generously by members of our community throughout the Triangle region, including:

- Handmade pottery items from Lionshead and Fiddlehead Pottery
- Haircuts and Colors from Poppy Salon
- 2-hour Glass Fusing Class for Two from Christal Cerrione
- 90-minute Hot Stone Massage from Theresa M. Brown Massage Therapy
- Two private dance lessons for two people from Ninth Street Dance
- 4 Rounds of Golf from Hillandale Golf Course
- Theatre Tickets from Raleigh Little Theater
- 1 Night in a Yurt in Saxapahaw from Cane Creek Farm
- 11 Ticket Party Pack from the DSI Comedy Theater
- And so much more!

Take a few minutes to outbid your neighbor and make a difference!

Common Woman Chorus is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and your donations are tax-deductible (Federal EIN 58-1711608).
